

The University of Notre Dame Department of English

José Limón

Mody C. Boatright Regents Professor of
American and English Literature
University of Texas at Austin

*Remembrances of Things in Texas Past:
On Mary Karr and John Phillip Santos*

Claudio Aguillon, Gallos (2001)

Monday, September 20, 2010

4:30 pm, 322 Jordan Hall

Reception to follow in Reading Room

Jose Limon's many academic interests include Chicano literature, cultural studies, anthropology and literature, Mexicans in the United States, U.S.-Mexico cultural relations, critical theory, and folklore and popular culture. His books include Mexican Ballads and Chicano Poems: History and Influence in Mexican-American Social Poetry and Dancing with the Devil: Society and Cultural Poetics in Mexican-American South Texas. He has received fellowships from the Stanford Humanities Research Center, the National Endowment for the Humanities, the American Council of Learned Societies.

UNIVERSITY OF
NOTRE DAME